This angle worked well for my Jeep. However, I have BedTred installed. So you may want to cut this section straight (see the red line) rather than on an angle, and then trim back as needed - as you fit your floor mat to your Jeep TJ.

Jeep TJ - DIY Driver Floor Mat Pattern

I have BedTred installed in my Jeep, and this floor mat was made to fit with BedTred installed. Regardless, this should be a good place for making your own - even without BedTred installed on your Jeep TJ.

I recommend that you print this out, cut out the pattern, then test it's fit to your Jeep - making any additional cuts and adjustments as needed.

It's likely, you will have to do a bit of extra trimming in areas to fit your mat and the materials you have chosen to your Jeep TJ.

Trim back the sections that go under your seat as needed.

This cut is near the gas pedal. I recommend stitching where the two sides cross over to prevent your foot from possibly hanging up on the material your choose to use for your floor mat.

I recommend leaving a little extra material in this area so you can trim it more percise to your pas-senger seat.

Trim back the sections that go under your seat as needed.
